Barry Swebston

JAN 2, 1936 - SEP 10, 2021

Barry Anthony Swebston, age 85, died on Friday, September 10, 2021 at Heartland of Dublin after a brief stay. Barry was born in Toledo, Ohio on January 2, 1936 to Roger L. Swebston and Elizabeth Steiger Swebston. He graduated from Aquinas High School and went on to earn his Bachelors Degree. Barry was an Accountant with the Board of Tax Appeals of Ohio. A member of Immaculate Conception Church, an avid golfer with multiple holes in one of which he was very proud. He loved the Columbus Clippers baseball, attending OSU sports with his brother, Greg, especially men's and women's basketball but his favorite was OSU football. He even traveled to OSU bowl games all over the country, including California, Florida, Texas just to name a few. Preceded in death by both parents, a brother, Donald S. Swebston of Columbus and Gregory B. Swebston of Marion. He is survived by his niece, Julie Rivas (Abel) of Ocoee, FL and many cousins and their extended families. Barry will be buried at Resurrection Cemetery alongside his parents and older brother, Don.
