Lane Marshall Brooke

SEP 24, 1969 - NOV 2, 2021

In Loving Memory of Lane M. Brooke, born September 24th 1969, has passed away this Tuesday, November 2nd 2021, due to complications from Covid. He is survived by his two daughters, Kylie and Shelby Brooke, and his Fiancé, Rayann Mozdian. He also leaves behind his siblings, Lorne Brooke, April Pennington, Lewis Brooke, Luke Brooke, and Linc Brooke, amongst many other family members. Lane was a dearly beloved father, Grandfather, son, brother, and friend. There wasn't a soul he met that he didn't leave an impression on. Lane was in Army active duty and reserves in his early 20's. He also participated in his local 4H for over 9 years and FFA for over 4 years. Among many other accomplishments he was also a determined entrepreneur. While Lane requested no funeral services, he did request a celebration of his life. Please reach out to the family for further details on the celebration. There will also be an honorary Turkey Shoot held with the Summit Station Lions Club on Sunday, November 14, 2021. Sign up starting at 10am, shoots starting at 12pm.
