I am very sorry for your loss. I am fortunate to have known your mother. I always enjoyed talking with her and I found her honest approach and matter-of-fact demeanor to be refreshing. And she always had me smiling. We should all have such an approach to life and to embrace family. I am sorry that health issues hindered her for much of the time I knew her. But still I could always tell she was happy to be right where she was with you, Jason, and Truly—afterall it is clear you were her heart.
