Jen, George and Tom- My condolences to all of you on your loss. George was a great guy. I'll bet he is already scoping out the best fishing places in heaven and bragging about catching the biggest fish. We miss him. Our thoughts and prayers go out to you guys.

Dear Jenifer, Tommy, Jr. & Peter-I was and am so saddened by the loss of George so can't imagine how difficult it must be for each of you. Unfortunately but not uncommonly he and I did not stay in touch as well as we should have and ultimately I barely knew you all. This adds to my grief. As I share childhood stories with others, without a doubt, George's name comes up. After all, he (and his brothers) was my first and best friend from Old Post Rd. let alone anywhere Through tears I smiled as I read about the time spent fishing with you boys as that was an almost daily activity shared by George and me off our little cove on the Scioto River. I'm certain we both would have been better students as kids if we'd have hit the books more and baited the hook less. However, who do you know that has warm feelings and memories about doing homework in your room?! If you're so inclined and when ready, off line, I'd love to share as many stupid but in my mind cherished adventures with my buddy and bf George as well as a couple touching pictures evidencing what I wrote of earlier. My address is included in this post. If you'd prefer a text, my number is (614) 216-4812. Warmest wishes to you all. Please know you're in my thoughts

I swam with George, Nick and Tom as kids and remember his hilarious personality, and propensity for getting in just a little bit of trouble! Mom LaVerne had a few eye rolls reserved for George even then. So sorry to hear this news, and heartfelt condolences to his loved ones.

My best wishes to Jennifer, Pete, George Jr. Tom, and the rest of the family. "PEP" was part of the first group of the "One of the Boys" group out of college. The McElroy Minister Gang. Oh, the fun we had! The occasional happy hour. The MM Christmas Party where I was known as the corporate "Rent - A - Date. I can't remember one of my dates. However, I can remember having a cocktail with Cliff, Tony, Greg, and PEP. And oh how we could make each other laugh! What fun we had! The Golf League. The golf banquets at Deercreek. PEP's boat. George taught me the joy of fishing. I caught my first white bass at Hoover while on George's boat. That's been at least 20 some years ago. To this day, whenever I am near any outdoors store and event, I can hear PEP say "Tone, there's only one fishing line out there...Trilene." And guess what, that's still the only line I buy. Every time I pass by a used boat for sale I think of PEP and the advice he gave me on buying one. I'm still waiting for the right one because of his council. And how can I forget one of my greatest wrestling victories by attending WrestleMania (3, 4, 5 or whichever one it was) at the House of Peponis dressed in a full length robe and mask while being titled as "The Masked Meatball"! PEP was the creator of "TSP". A nickname I still go by in certain circles. A chunk of me is gone. This loss runs deep. However, I will always have a smile on my face and give out a slight chuckle when I think of PEP.

Tom, Nick and family, this morning I learned of George's passing from my brother, Ed Avery. I am so sorry for your loss. You all undoubtedly knew our sister, Joy, more than you did me — I am their older sister. I surely remember the Peponis boys, though, and how many afternoons Ed and 'Georgie' spent together. You were wonderful neighbors and playmates. May God bless you with his peace.

I was a customer of George's later in my career and thought very highly of him as a professional. After the professional relationship ended, we continued to stay in touch by going to lunch. He introduced me to a little pizza shop on East Main St called Rubinos, famous for their thin crust. I enjoyed being around George because of his positive attitude. Friendly and funny and an all around likeable person. I'm sorry for your loss. My condolences, Roger

Jennifer and family, I am so sorry to hear so belatedly of Georges passing. George and I became friends through my association with my employers insurance relationship his employer. As the insurance buyer for my employer I became acquainted with George in a professional manner, which evolved into a friendship. We shared a common interest in stock car racing which led to traveling to various events nationwide. We also shared a common liking for a cold brew now and then ,one in particular being Labats Blue which one might catch us consuming at the Cornerstone Tavern in Gahanna. George was a good husband and father who always had his family in mind. George will be missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing him. My God bless his soul and family
