William Symons Wolfson Jr.

AUG 17, 1984 - AUG 4, 2022

William Symons Wolfson, Jr. “Bill”, passed away on Thursday, August 4, 2022. He was born in Cleveland, Ohio on August 17, 1984 to the late William, Sr. and Susan Wolfson. Bill spent many years working at city pools as a life guard and pool manager, he loved the water and had great memories of his time at the pool. He had a Bachelor’s Degree in Computer Science and was a Senior Developer at Fusion Alliance in Columbus, Ohio. Bill loved OSU football, the Cleveland Browns. He was a wonderful cook who enjoyed cooking, and good food. He also enjoyed video games, and gardening. In addition to his parents he was preceded in death by his beloved grandmother, Eloise Wolfson who he spent a lot of time with as a child, she held a special place in his heart. Bill married his loving wife, Sarah Wolfson, on June 26, 2021. In addition to Sarah, he is survived by his brother, Bryce Wolfson; aunt, Laura; uncle, Mark Nick; and many special family members and friends. He also leaves behind his two cats he shared with Sarah and loved very much, Babou and Jack Bauer. Bill will be greatly missed by all who were blessed to know him. A Celebration of Life event will be held at The Kitchen, 231 E Livingston Ave, Columbus, OH 43215 on Sunday, September 25, 2022; friends will be received from 1pm-2pm, service will be at 2pm with a reception to follow.
