His love of classic muscle cars and auto auctions continued well into his retirement. Donald loved his time in the warm Florida weather, but chose to relocate back to Ohio in 2006 to be close to his son and family.

Per Donalds wishes, there will be no funeral or service. However, we are planning a Celebration of Life in Spring of 2023. For details regarding the Celebration of Life, please email mrsjennifersmith12@gmail.com. Details will be provided as scheduling is determined.

Don was a good man, you could always depend on him. No matter the task, he'd complete it. Even in recent years, facing health issues, I never heard him complain. He enjoyed talking of the good ole days and it was fun to travel down Memory Lane with his comments. He will be missed by all that knew him. Ryan and Jennifer are to be commended for their loving care that gave peace to Don in his last days. Howard Price, Jr.

Don loved to laugh and share special times with family and friends. He was so kind to Aunt June and to my mother. He blessed those around him. Now he is sharing Eternal Life with Neal David. What a time a rejoicing that must be.!!!
