I remember when they brought you in and laid you in a bed in Grandma's house when you were newborn. You were beautiful with such thick dark hair. We cousins shared lots of love and good times then and later Steve and I always enjoyed your dinners. I loved your gardens and the outdoor movies you did with your kids. You'll both be missed. Love you! Cousin Mary Jane or Mary Jammers like Grandpa liked to call me.

Terri and I were friends since middle school. When our language arts teacher called our make up war paint we thought it would be a funny idea to paint war paint on our faces with make up. What we didn't know was that our teacher was not going to let us wash it off until our next class. What a mess. Terri was one of the kindest people I have ever been blessed to call friend. We lost a beautiful soul but heaven is rejoicing. I love you Terri. You will be so missed by so many.
