Linda K. Justice

SEP 11, 1952 - MAR 4, 2025

Linda K. Justice, 72, passed away on March 4, 2025, in Gahanna, Ohio.

Born on September 11, 1952, Linda had a deep love for music and movies, often finding joy in dancing and sharing laughter with those around her. She had a unique sense of humor that could brighten any room and was known and loved for her honesty.

She is survived by her former spouse, David Justice, and their daughters, Angelina Murphy, Annette (Roy) Duke, and Amy (J.T.) Underhill; her siblings, Peggy (Wayne) Flowers, Susie Campbell, Bonnie Ware, Michael (Pam) Ware, and Ashley Little; many nieces and nephews; as well as eleven grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren (with another expected great-grandchild on the way).

Linda was preceded in death by her parents, Floyd and Hedwig Ware; her brothers, Vernon Ware and Johnny Ware; her brother-in-law, Jerry Campbell; her sister-in-law, Kristy Ware; her nephews, James Lawwell and Michael Campbell; her son-in-law, Robert Murphy; and her infant son, Adam Justice.

Her memory will live on through the love she shared and the joy she brought to those who knew her.

Angie, I am deeply sorry. There is nothing that describes the loss of one's mother. Aunt Linda was the absolute best. Hugs to you and Annette & Amy & families. My heart aches for those we've lost but finds comfort in knowing we will see them again. I love you. Jackie Clark
