I first met Edna when I moved to the same apartment building as her. We became friends, finding that both of our fathers were from Circleville. We lost touch and finally re-connected via Facebook a couple years ago. I will certainly miss her. My condolences to her family. It's not goodbye, it's see you later.

It is difficult to pick my fondest memory of Edna. It could be the day I met her in front of our home. Would Have many deep conversations with her in the driveway. We became to be good friends and one day I gave her an adoption certificate claiming her as our daughter. From then on she called us Mom and Pops. I do believe the memory that I will never forget is the day she left me standing in the pew when she went to the altar and surrendered her life to Christ and SHE NEVER LOOKED BACK. She was the most dedicated and committed to living a life for Christ. Her favorite song, "I choose Christ" and it was forever true, she chose Christ. There is not on truer example of living the life devoted to The Lord.
